

A large assortment of baked goods is displayed against a dark background. In the foreground, there are stacks of round cookies, some with nuts and chocolate chips. To the left, a woven basket is filled with donuts. The rest of the scene is filled with various donuts: some are plain with a dusting of sugar, some have chocolate glaze, some have white glaze with colorful sprinkles, and some have chocolate glaze with sprinkles. To the right, there are several muffins, some with blueberries. The overall scene is a rich variety of sweet, baked treats.
